

Stakeholder	Requirements	Expectations	Priority	Roles	Responsibilities
Project managers	timely reporting from teams and adherence to project scope and deadlines by all stakeholders.	Successful project delivery within the defined scope, on time, and within budget.	Very High	team members	directly responsible for the project's overall success
Officer in Charge	regular updates on project progress	project enhances operational capabilities without unnecessary disruptions	High	Senior executive	approve major decisions and changes.
Ramstein Airbase	timely project completion	efficient execution of project	High	Project Hosts/Customer	provide construction design, materials, tools, and equipment to perform construction work
ANGRC	assurance that the project provides valuable training for ANG workers	project serves as an effective training platform for ANG personnel	Medium	ANG headquarters	support project through funding and oversight
Civil engineer division	positive feedback from participants and alignment with broader organizational goals	DFT program effectively combines training with real-world project executions	High	DFT creators	provide technical support to the project and evaluate program effectiveness.
ANG workers	safe working conditions, clear instructions, proper tools/equipment	contribute to a successful construction project within their area of expertise	Medium	ANG members	execute construction tasks as per training and instructions
786 Civil Engineering Squadron	effective use of DFT personnel and adherence to military construction standards	project fulfills the identified need for additional storage capacity	High	Unit leaders/hosts	coordinate between Ramstein Air Base, DFT teams, and other stakeholders